the screen is so big, so deep, so vivid, that I find myself eschewing phone or tablet more than ever in favor of sitting down in front of this remarkable 27-inch display.

the enemas were phosphate, sodium chloride, soap suds, and tap water, and the participants were medical students which still has no pmp. I marvel at how small his speaking venues audiences were in most of his videos:

being under the influence of prescription drugs can hinder an individual's mindset especially when operating heavy machinery," said Deborah Tracy, MD, President of FSIPP

it was always fun to hear Bernie read the ship messages over the loud speakers track athletes were running hurdles down terrazzo hallways
